Many people today, even some believers, think that Yeshua's death did away with the law that is TORAH. Read the passage from Matthew 5:17 and then replace the blue word below with a synonym for abolish.

"Do not think that I came to abolish the Torah or the Prophets! I did not come to abolish, but to fulfill.

~Matthew 5:17

Does the sentence still sound rational? Does it make any sense at all? In spite of this many people believe that this is how this passage reads. We can giggle about this, because it sounds so silly, but in reality changing even one word in the Bible is VERY SERIOUS BUSINESS! G-D Himself said so! In the very next few sentences we read:

¹⁸Amen, I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not the smallest letter or serif shall ever pass away from the Torah until all things come to pass. ¹⁹Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others the same, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever keeps and teaches them, this one shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

How does this game help us to understand that Yeshua HIMSELF said that Torah is still relevant, still alive, still as applicable to our lives as it has been for eternity?
