Mattiyahu 5:23-32 (TLV)
23“Therefore if you are presenting your offering upon the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, 24leave your offering there before the altar and go. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and present your offering.

G-D tells B'nei Yisrael that a rebellious son must be punished. the rebellious son

BIG IDEA	BIG IDEA	BIG IDEA	BIG IDEA
----------	----------	----------	----------

Rebellion is when we do not listen to G-D.	If we do not obey G-D's word we are rebellious.	if we do not take responsibility to read HIS Word, we act rebelliously.	The word of G-D is truth.

HEBREW LETTER OF THE MONTH OF ELUL

This month’s letter is sin and it is pronounced seen. The way to remember the difference between the shin and sin is to remember if the dot is on the left it is sin. Sin is the 21st letter of the alef-bet, and shares this position with the shin that has a dot on the right. Sin is a letter that makes a sound that is very like our English letter "s". We make this sound by pressing our teeth together in a wide smile and hissing like a snake. Many words in Ivrit begin with sin and Sarah our matriarch who gave birth to Yitzchak in her old age, was originally named Sarai, but G-D changed her name to Sarah, which means princess. It is an understanding within the community that a name is a VERY important thing.. Look at the names of the things that start with the letter sin. We can move our learning forward by tracing the letter sin. Use your finger to trace the large letter sin on the next page, and then look at the items that begin with it; you can read the names aloud and run your finger underneath the letters as you read. Remember. that Hebrew, unlike English, is read from right to left.

Oh, Be Careful

Oh, be careful little eyes what you see
Oh, be careful little eyes what you see
There's a Father up above
And He's looking down in love
So, be careful little eyes what you see

Oh, be careful little feet where you go
Oh, be careful little feet where you go
Our Abba's up above
And He's leading us with love
So, be careful little feet where you go

Oh, be careful little ears what you hear
Oh, be careful little ears what you hear
The Father's up above
And He's hearing us with love
So, be careful little ears what you hear

Oh, be careful little mouth what you say
Oh, be careful little mouth what you say
Yeshua is above
And He's speaking out His love
So, be careful little mouth what you say

Oh, be careful little hands what you do
Oh, be careful little hands what you do
Our Father's up above and

He's showing us His love
So, be careful little hands
what you do

David's Rebellious Son

9Avshalom happened to meet some of David's servants. Avshalom was riding his mule, and as the mule walked under the thick branches of a big terebinth tree, his head got caught in the terebinth, so that he was left hanging between earth and sky, as the mule went on from under him. 10Someone saw it and told Yo'av, "I saw Avshalom hanging in a terebinth." 11Yo'av asked the man who told him, "Here now, you saw it; so why didn't you strike him to the ground then and there? I would have had to give you ten pieces of silver and a belt besides." 12The man replied to Yo'av, "Even if I were to get a thousand pieces of silver, I still wouldn't raise my hand against the son of the king! After all, while we were listening, the king ordered you, Avishai and Ittai, 'Be careful that no one touches young Avshalom.' 13Or, if I had pretended that I didn't know, the king would have known otherwise anyway; and you wouldn't have interceded for me either."
