NOTES

The first goal is to approach all scripture with humility and prayer.

As children, I know each of you have had times in your life in which your Mom or Dad have said these words, “You can do it.” It may have been when you were learning a sport. It may have been when you were starting school. It may have been when you learned to ride a bike.

In this week’s Parsha Re’eh, Ad-nai is speaking through Moses to the Children of Israel and telling them about what is going to happen to them as they cross the Jordan and finally enter the Promised Land. As Ad-nai speaks, we notice something very powerful.

As the Children of Israel were getting ready to cross the Jordan River, Ad-nai spoke to them, not by saying, “You can do it.” He spoke to them with much stronger words: “You will do it.” As you read through the Torah Parsha, as well as the rest of your Bible, always remember that Ad-nai doesn’t just think “you can do it.” He knows you will do it.
