NOTES

The first goal is to approach all scripture with humility and prayer.

This week, we are celebrating Sukkot (Feast of Tabernacles). Sukkot is one of the three pilgrimage festivals along with Pesach and Shavuot and is a joyous harvest celebration in which the Jewish people were commanded to dwell in a Sukkah (temporary dwellings or huts).

This 8-day festival is a time when we remember that our people lived in temporary dwellings in the wilderness for 40 years. We are also reminded that our life in this world is temporary and that even our bodies are really sukkot, or temporary dwelling places.

Those of us who believe in Yeshua are also reminded that He is coming back and we will live with Him for 1,000 years temporarily, until the new heaven and new earth are created.
