Guest Speaker Chris Bordewyk

Chris Bordewyk lives in Windom, Minnesota, with her husband, Joel, and their four children: Ethan, Eli, Isaac, and Ava. After years in graphic design, she was called into full-time ministry with Time to Revive, leading communications, uniting churches, and equipping believers to share the Gospel. In January 2025, she joined Joel to serve at Camp.

Rooted in Jesus' command in Matthew 28:19 to "go and make disciples," Chris has a deep passion for sharing the Gospel and helping believers fall in love with the Lord through His presence, fellowship with the Holy Spirit, and Scripture. She is especially committed to discipling women—embracing honesty and vulnerability with God and one another, guiding them to freedom in Christ, and empowering them to walk in His peace, righteousness, and purpose.

Guest Speaker Joel Bordewyk

Joel serves as Executive Director of Camp Shetek with his wife, Chris. They have four children: Ethan, Eli, Isaac, and Ava.

Converted by Acts 4:13, Joel began earnestly pursuing Jesus. Christ answered that pursuit with a personal encounter that transformed his life and opened a new calling. Joel left his career in engineering and entered into ministry to help others recognize that Christ has set them free from sin and the distractions of the flesh, and to earnestly seek Him and experience a transformed life.
