

Next Gen Pastoral Coordinator

15–20 hours/week

The Role

The Next Gen Director will help DCV create a thriving ministry environment where children, students, and families are known, loved, discipled, and equipped to follow Jesus.

This person will provide leadership for our Family Ministry volunteers and help cultivate a culture where ministry to the next generation is shared by the whole church.

This is an opportunity for a visionary, high-energy leader to build and grow a thriving next gen ministry in a church with a growing number of young families.

Primary Responsibilities

Family Ministry Volunteer Leadership

- Recruit, train, equip, schedule, and pastor Family Ministry volunteers.
- Develop a healthy volunteer culture marked by joy, ownership, consistency, and spiritual growth.
- Identify and develop emerging leaders within Family Ministry.
- Build healthy volunteer systems that allow for future growth
- Oversee the preparation and implementation of weekly lessons
- Ensure that curriculum and teaching are biblically faithful, age-appropriate, engaging, and aligned with DCV's theological convictions.
- Help create a consistent and welcoming experience for children and students each week.

Youth Ministry Oversight

- Oversee and invest in our youth ministry intern and team of volunteer youth ministry leaders
- Help youth ministry team build systems and healthy culture that supports future ministry growth

Parent Equipping & Pastoral Care

- Equip parents to disciple their children and cultivate faith in the home.
- Develop resources, gatherings, and other opportunities to encourage and support parents.
- Provide pastoral care and relational support to families as appropriate.

Who We're Looking For

We are looking for someone who:

- Loves Jesus and has a genuine passion for children, students, and families.
- Embodies DCV's values and theological convictions
- Is committed to growth in spiritual maturity and emotional health.
- Has a heart for developing and empowering volunteers rather than doing ministry alone.
- Is organized and dependable, with strong follow-through.
- Can communicate well with children, students, parents, and volunteers.
- Understands the importance of both excellent programming and genuine pastoral care.
- Has experience serving in children's, youth, family, or other ministry contexts.