Communion Practice

In Holy Communion, Christ welcomes us and meets us in the bread and wine. God comes to us with love and forgiveness, renews our relationship with our Creator, and nourishes us as the body of Christ. As Jesus promised, he is truly present in this meal. He invites us to remember him as we eat and drink. We come bringing our whole selves—our joys, our burdens, and our sins—trusting in Christ's forgiveness and asking God to shape us in love. (1 Corinthians 11:23–26; John 6:53–56)

At Trinity Lutheran Church, all are invited and encouraged to participate in this holy meal. All who wish to receive Communion may do so. If you choose not to receive the bread and wine, you are welcome to come forward for a blessing.

To be sensitive to our worshipers' needs, we offer red wine and white grape juice. Gluten-free wafers are available upon request.

Welcome

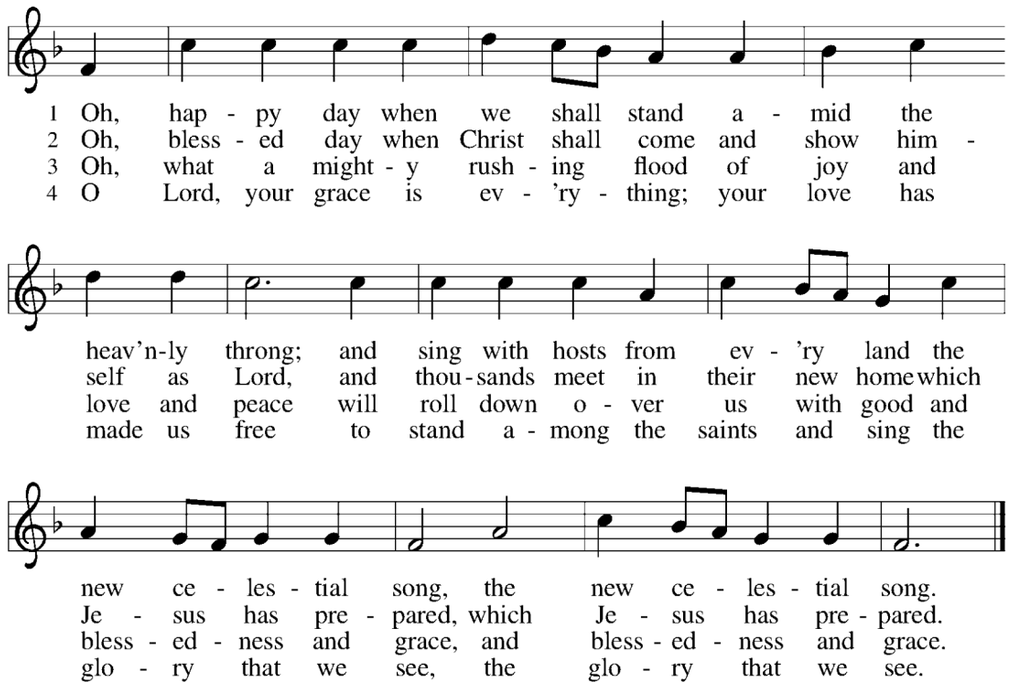

Call to Worship

We gather because God has been faithful.
With grateful hearts, we come.
We gather with gifts to share and choices to make.
With open hands, we come.
Christ calls us to keep awake—to notice our neighbors, to recognize the moment, to be ready to love.
With open eyes, we come.
Today, let our gratitude take shape in generosity.
Let our faith take shape in action.
Come, people of God. Let us worship the one who first gave everything for us.
Our lives belong to you, O God. Make us a living blessing.

Greeting

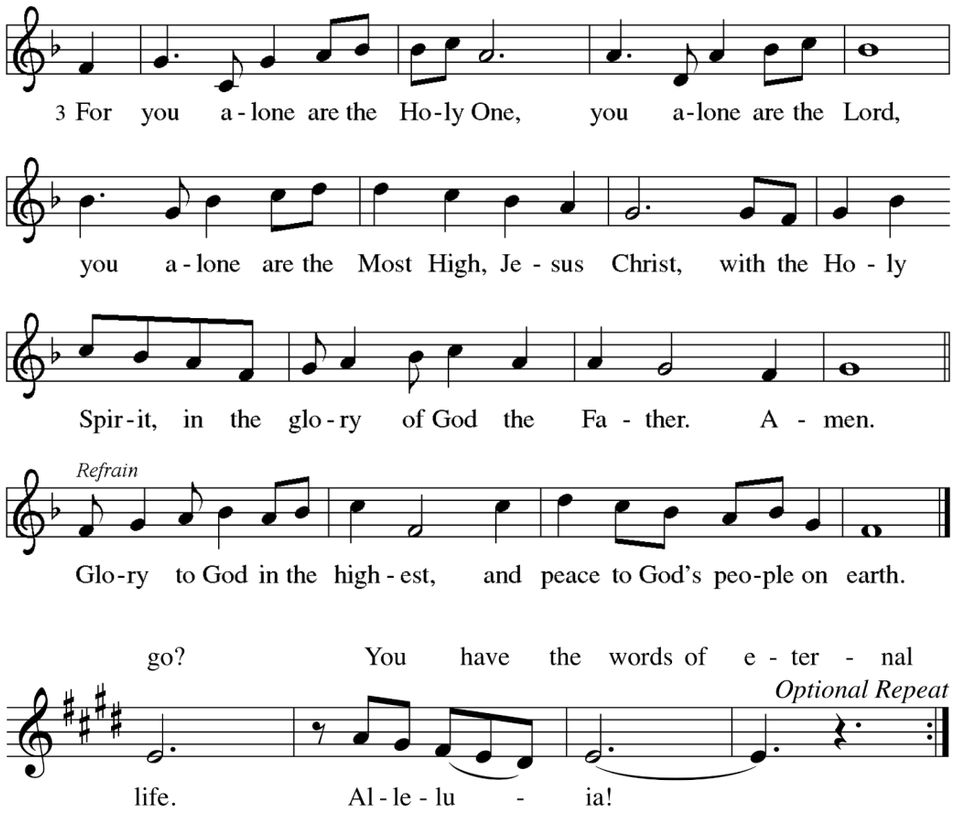

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Faithful God, you meet us in this day and call us to lives of purpose. Keep us awake to the opportunities for love that are already before us. Where we have grown comfortable, challenge us. Where we are afraid, steady us. Where we are weary, renew us. Make our commitments honest, our generosity courageous, and our congregation ready to serve; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

Children's Sermon & Kids' Praise

At this time children age 3 – grade 3 are now dismissed, at the parent's discretion, to the Chapel.

First Reading: Amos 5:18-24

In the days of Amos, people thought that the day of the LORD would be a time of great victory, but Amos announced that it would be a day of darkness, not light. He said liturgy is no substitute for obedience. The LORD demands justice and righteousness in the community.

The reading is concluded:
Word of God, word of life.
Thanks be to God.

Psalm 70

Amy Danielsen, cantor

1 Be pleased, O God, to deliver me;
O Lord, make haste to help me.
2 Let those who seek my life be put to shame and confounded; let those who take pleasure in my misfortune draw back and be disgraced. R
3 Let those who say to me "Aha!" and gloat over me turn back because of their shame.
4 Let all who seek you rejoice and be glad in you;
let those who love your salvation say forever, "Great is the Lord!"
5 But as for me, I am poor and needy; come to me quickly, O God.
You are my helper and my deliverer; O Lord, do not tarry. R

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Some of the Thessalonians are worried that dead Christians will be excluded from the resurrection to eternal life when Christ comes again. Paul reassures them with the word of hope that all Christians, living or dead, will be raised into everlasting life with Christ.

The reading is concluded:
Word of God, word of life.
Thanks be to God.

Commitment Prayer

God of overflowing grace, before we brought these gifts, you gave yourself to us. Before we made these promises, you claimed us in love. Receive these offerings and commitments—the fruit of our labor, the gifts of our hands, the hours of our days, and the hopes we entrust to you. Turn these gifts into bread for the hungry, welcome for the stranger, comfort for the grieving, and room for the young to grow. When we grow weary, replenish our hope. When we hesitate, deepen our trust. Keep the flame of your love alive among us, until our promises become acts of compassion, and our gratitude becomes a way of life. All we have is gift. All we offer is thanksgiving. In the name of Jesus, the light of the world. Amen.

Prayers of the People

God, in your mercy,
hear our prayer.

The Great Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy, Holy, Holy

Words of Institution & Lord's Prayer

Lord, remember us in your kingdom, and teach us to pray:
Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come, thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever. Amen.
