

Websites

- Ligonier.org: Wonderful Articles, Devotionals, daily teaching videos, and reliable resources to purchase.
- Biblehub.com: Best bible website. Lots of translations. Lots of free commentaries. Lots of language tools. (Calvin, Matthew Henry, Geneva study Bible, Gill. All these commentaries are available.)
- Gotquestions.org: Lots of questions addressed biblically. Not consistently reformed so always think through whether their answer is using the bible correctly. But it's a good initial starter to thinking about an issue.
- Esv.org: good, quick, browser bible with some free study notes and study bibles.
- Bloggers: Kevin DeYoung "DeYoung Restless and Reformed" (thegospelcoalition.org/blogs/kevin-deyoung/); Michael Kruger "Canon Fodder" (michaeljkruger.com) (See him on whether we have the Right books in the bible and someone who understands university challenges to the faith. See: <https://rts.edu/surviving-religion-101/>)

Main Apps

- YouVersion Bible: Has reading plans and a lot of versions
- Ligonier Ministries: All the website resources in one place (See also RefNet Christian Radio)
- ESV bible app, less memory use little faster.
- RTS Mobile app; lots of free seminary lectures here on any topic
- Thirdmill: Great compressed seminary lectures. Very good for those who are intimidated by the RTS mobile app lectures and want 6hr courses instead of 30hr.
- New City Catechism app
- Scribd; $8 a month, lots of Christian audio books here
- Audible or ChristianAudiobooks both have free trials and you can pick up Christian audio books
- Libby: through the library system, some good ebooks available here.

Podcasts

- Core Christianity: Two pastors answering common questions people have about faith (how can I know I am saved? What if I sin? What does _____ bible verse really mean? Etc...)
- Simply Put: Very short explanations of important Christian beliefs
- 5 Minutes in Church History with Stephen Nichols: Very good way to get a little church history pairs well with simply put.
- ESV M'Cheyne Reading Plan: Automatically puts all four scripture chapters together from the plan for you.
- The Briefing: insightful news analysis by Al Mohler highlighting articles from the NYTimes
- The World News. Christian news show in the style of NPR, but better.
- The Reformed Kidcast: A dad going through the children's catechism with his daughter and son
- White Horse Inn: Pastors discuss core Christian beliefs biblically and historically.
- Downtown Presbyterian Church | Greenville, SC: Pastor Brian Habig's sermons. Very good; heavy on good heart application.
- Christ Covenant Church Sermons: sermons by Kevin Deyoung; heavy on the theology really good in John's Gospel.
- Renewing your Mind with R.C. Sproul
- The Jerusalem Chamber: Theology Nerd Warning 3 young pastors who go through the Westminster Confession of Faith. Steak not Chicken.
- Unbelievable: British radio podcast that debates different issues. Philosophy Nerd Warning
- Reformed Forum: Book Reviews, Theology, lots of things to learn here, Vos' biblical Theology walk through, but only for those who drive around all day all week.
- Theology Simply Profound: Similar to Reformed Forum
- *What podcasting app to use? For Android: I use Castbox. (also Podcast Addict works)
