

Love Killers – Part 1

The Power You are Missing

For this reason, because I have heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love[g] toward all the saints,
Ephesians 1:15 ESV

I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers, 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him,
Ephesians 1:16-17 ESV

having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,
Ephesians 1:18 ESV

and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might
Ephesians 1:19 ESV

There is no end to God's power that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come.

Ephesians 1:2-21 ESV

And he put all things under his feet and gave him as head over all things to the church, 23 which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.
Ephesians 1:22-23 ESV

Talk It Over

Paul begins by recognizing the faith in Jesus and love for others in believers.

- Where do you currently see your faith in Jesus growing in your life?
- How is that faith showing up in the way you love and treat others?
- Is it easier for you to focus on faith or love? Why do you think that is?

Paul points to the hope we are called to and the richness of what God has given us.

- What does “hope in Christ” mean to you personally?
- Do you feel like that hope shapes your daily life? Why or why not?
- How might your perspective or choices change if you lived more aware of that hope?

Personal Challenge

- What is one way you can intentionally live out your faith, love, or hope this week?
