LIFE

People helping people live out the unexpected love of Jesus every day.

On Monday and Tuesday of this past week, our church family hosted Southern Baptists from across the state for the annual meeting of the Baptist Convention of New Mexico. This is basically the state-level denominational "business meeting," where we heard reports from various state ministries (such as the New Mexico Baptist Children's Home), voted on budgets, and voted on individuals serving on the various boards of the Convention. Sounds absolutely thrilling, I know. (I jest)

However, what I really love about our annual meeting is the worship. I don't just mean the music (though that was wonderful as well, led by our own praise band Worship 3:24, Mountain Valley Baptist Church's praise team, and the New Mexico Singing Churchmen)—I'm specifically talking about the preaching. This year, we heard several very challenging and encouraging biblical messages. Convention President Chris Promersberger preached about "Treasuring Christ Together" from Psalm 96 on Tuesday morning. He was followed by Dr. Ronni Kurtz, professor of Systematic Theology at Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, who shared ten facts about Jesus from Colossians 1:15-20, calling us to "Look at Christ." Dr. Matt Celoria, pastor of Bethel Baptist Church in Alamogordo, shared about Paul's pursuit of Christ (and ours!) from Philippians 3:12-16, and Convention Executive Director Steve Ballew closed the meeting with a message on seeing through the lens of the Gospel from 2 Corinthians 5:14-21. It was a blessing to hear these messages and be encouraged in my faith.

Convention Resolution #1 this year was entitled, "On Appreciation." In it, the messengers to the meeting resolved to: "express their appreciation to the pastors, staff, and members of Eastern Hills Baptist Church for their generous hospitality and faithful service." The annual meeting was an opportunity for Eastern Hills to show our partnership, cooperation, and fellowship with the rest of the SBC churches in New Mexico, and so many people rose to meet that opportunity. I don't think I can name them all, so I won't try. I'll just say thanks to everyone who came, helped, served, gave, and prayed for the Convention—well done, Eastern Hills!

Blessings,
Bill
