LIFE

People helping people live out the unexpected love of Jesus every day.

Several weeks ago, after the rest of the staff had gone home on a Friday afternoon, I was alone in my office, intending to catch up on reading and studying, but my mind was full of distractions. It was like I could not calm my thoughts or disengage the distractions.

As I sat at my desk, it was so quiet that I could hear the pigeons on the roof (another distraction). I intentionally tried to relax, reflect, and listen to the Lord as I prayerfully contemplated what was going on in my mind. I leaned back, pushed the chair away from the desk, and ever so gently, it felt like the Lord was giving me a spiritual "hug."

I looked down upon my gigantic desk, and the Lord reminded me of the staff who came before me who used to sit at this same desk. In and on this desk are files, mementoes, archaic computer cables, and other reminders (stains and scratches) left by my predecessors. Some of these things I have not removed because they are sentimental to me. Why is this so?

If this desk could talk, what would it say? Think of all the previous years of conversation, prayers, phone calls, Bible study, counseling, laughter, tears... In the same way that God was with my predecessors, equipping, leading, providing for every need, and most importantly, He called them to ministry. The Lord reminded me that He is with me too, he will equip me to do all that He calls me to do.

The reality is this. We are all interim. There were many before me, and there will be those who come after me. God is always working, past, present, and future. He is ever faithful!

"He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you will be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; you who were called by Him into fellowship with His Son, Jesus Christ our Lord" (1 Cor. 1:8-9).

Blessings, Michael
