LIFE

People helping people live out the unexpected love of Jesus every day.

I am struggling to find the words sufficient to express my gratitude to the Lord, to the staff, and to the church for the recognition of my 25th anniversary as a pastor at EHBC. I was truly shocked by the kindness and generosity shown to me last Sunday, and to be honest, I still am. The Lord has been incredibly good to me in where He has placed me for service in His kingdom, and it is a joy to get to be a part of this wonderful church!

As I have reflected this week, I came to 1 Timothy chapter 1, and Paul's words about where he came from and what Christ had done in his life. I really identify with his words that come not from pride but from gratitude:

I give thanks to Christ Jesus our Lord who has strengthened me, because He considered me faithful, appointing me to the ministry—even though I was formerly a blasphemer, a persecutor, and an arrogant man. But I received mercy because I acted out of ignorance in unbelief, and the grace of our Lord overflowed, along with the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. This saying is trustworthy and deserving of full acceptance: "Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners"—and I am the worst of them. But I received mercy for this reason, so that in me, the worst of them, Christ Jesus might demonstrate His extraordinary patience as an example to those who would believe in Him for eternal life. Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only God, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen. (1 Timothy 1:12-17, CSB)

These are better words than I could ever come up with to say just how grateful I am to our Lord for His lovingkindness. Thank you, church, for being His hands and feet in my life and in the world. All praise and honor and glory to Him for His faithfulness to me, to my family, and to Eastern Hills!

Blessings, Bill
