LIFE

People helping people live out the unexpected love of Jesus every day.

Are you a prepper? Not in the sense of preparing for the end of the world—or a zombie apocalypse—but in the sense of being ready for life.

Most people live from moment to moment, like the idiom: “by the seat of their pants.” But for a Christian, is that the best way to live?

Consider how Paul urges believers to walk (live) in Christ:

- In newness of life (Romans 6:4)
- In decency (Romans 13:13)
- In love (Romans 14:15)
- By faith (2 Corinthians 5:7)
- In wisdom (Colossians 4:5)
- Worthy of the Lord (Colossians 1:10)

Colossians 2:6-7 says, “So then, just as you have received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in Him, being rooted and built up in Him, and established in the faith, just as you were taught, and overflowing with gratitude.”

Living out our new life in Christ is a lifelong process. As His followers, we are called (and set apart by God) to keep growing, maturing, and becoming more like Him. That takes submission, commitment, and daily effort. We must rely on the power of the Holy Spirit and the truth of God’s Word to help us be prepared to live for Christ every day!

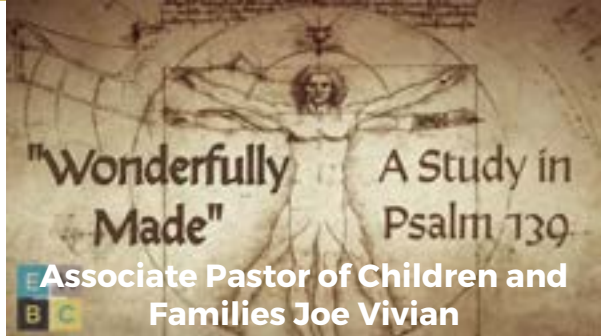

So, I ask you again: are you a prepper? I pray that each of us will continue to live in Christ Jesus every day, with our hearts overflowing with gratitude, looking for opportunities to share the Gospel with other people, and all for God’s glory.

People helping people live out the unexpected love of Jesus every day.

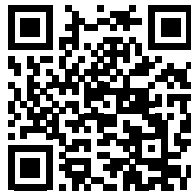

Blessings,
Michael
