Adults on Mission

Adults on Mission was moved next Sunday July 26 to accommodate the missionaries travel plans and our business meeting. Please consider coming to hear about their ministry in North Africa. These are missionaries who have hosted teams from New Mexico, including some of our former students who served there as summer missionaries.

FRIDAY, July 31st, Second Chance excursion.

CORNERSTONE Note the time change to 1 PM. We will meet at Burque Licks, a family-owned homemade ice cream shop at 4207 Lomas Blvd NE. There is a sign-up sheet on the Get Connected table.

Care Net would like to thank all those who contributed to the 'Change for Life' baby bottle campaign. As of the end of May, $1,052.96 was collected!

LIFE

People helping people live out the unexpected love of Jesus every day.

Pride is a dangerous thing. As the old saying goes, "Pride is the garden in which all other sins grow." While this may or may not be precisely correct, it's certainly a very large part of the spiritual difficulty that we face—and we all face pride in some way, shape, or form. Every day. None of us are immune.

We struggle with pride when we think too highly of ourselves, ascribing glory to ourselves that God deserves (see Romans 12:3). We struggle with pride when we think too lowly of ourselves, believing that our weakness is stronger than God Almighty's strength (consider Moses in Exodus 4:10, and God's response in vs. 11-12). We struggle with pride when we assume that we can control everything, especially other people (look at James 4:13-15).

My own personal version of pride usually shows up as a form of a hero complex: that I have to be the one to do this or that, because I can—not because of the accolades of the people around me, but because of my own idea of who I am, who I should be, and what I'm called to be and to do. But the truth is that everything that I am, everything that God calls me to do and gives me the ability for, everything that I might want to think is about me, is all actually about Him: He gives us our abilities. He calls us to tasks. The Bible says that though we might plan our paths, He determines our steps (Proverbs 16:9). Jeremiah 9:23-24 says this:

This is what the LORD says: The wise person should not boast in his wisdom; the strong should not boast in his strength; the wealthy should not boast in his wealth. But the one who boasts should boast in this: That he understands and knows Me—that I am the LORD, showing faithful love, justice, and righteousness on the earth, for I delight in these things. This is the LORD's declaration. (CSB)

Where might you be tempted to pride? Repent, and boast in what God has done.

Blessings,
Bill
