LIFE

People helping people live out the unexpected love of Jesus every day.

When you hear the reference to Psalm 119, what comes to mind? Do you think about the length of the Psalm (176 verses) or how it is as an acrostic according to the order of the Hebrew alphabet? I often hear people quoting Psalm 119:105 which emphasizes God's Word as a guiding light that illuminates our path. There are so many familiar quotes from this psalm.

Even without a commentary one notices that most of the eight verse sections contain words pertaining to God's truth revealed through His: "instruction," "decrees," "precepts," "statutes," "commands," "judgements," "promise," and "word." God's Word is complete!

The first two verses set the tone for the beginning of the Psalm. "How happy are those whose way is blameless, who walk according to the Lord's instruction! Happy are those who keep His decrees and seek Him with all their heart" (Psalm 119:1-2, CSB). The word "happy" also means "blessed" and the word "blameless" from the Hebrew word for "perfect" "complete" or "without blemish." The Lord has revealed to us how to live according to His instruction. He blesses us and makes us complete when we "keep His decrees" and "seek Him" with all our heart. Our "way is blameless" not according to works we have done, it is through faith trusting in God alone for our salvation, resulting in our obedience to walk in His ways.

So, when you hear the reference to Psalm 119, remember how blessed we are in Christ. By His Word and the Spirit, He has revealed everything we need to live a blameless life. "For you are saved by grace through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is God's gift—not from works, so that no one can boast. For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared ahead of time for us to do" (Ephesians 2:8-10).

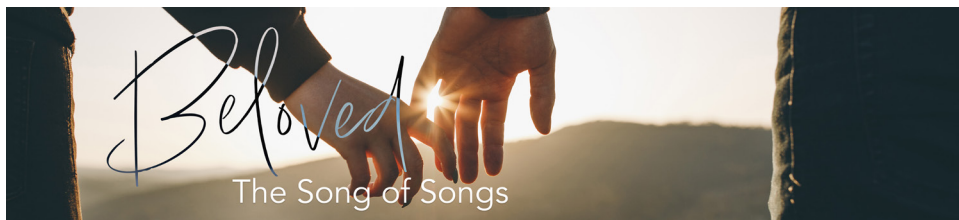

"So then, just as you have received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to walk in Him, being rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, just as you were taught, and overflowing with gratitude" (Colossians 2:6-7).

Blessings, Michael
