

“The aftermath of Easter...is one of the most striking pieces of evidence we have for the truth of the Easter proclamation: If Jesus had not appeared to his dispersed and demoralized disciples, imbuing them with new vigor and purpose, how could we ever explain their almost overnight transformation from a fearful huddle, hiding behind locked doors, to a barn-burning band of fearless preachers and ministers who were ready to defy the empire, if necessary, to take their message to the farthest reaches of human society” – Wesley Hill, Easter

Friends, what we do every day in the “aftermath of Easter” has the potential to lend credibility to the truth of Jesus’ resurrection for our watching world.

This past Sunday evening (March 22), I had the privilege of walking through our church’s neighborhood with a group of about ten people—mostly youth. Together, we prayed house by house for our neighbors, offering simple prayers for safety, joy, relationship, and salvation, while hanging these Easter invitations on doors and gates. In this simple exercise, we reminded each other of the incredible hope that we have in Jesus, and that we have been commissioned to share with any who are open.

In these days leading up to Easter Sunday, and in the days that follow, may we live with purpose and conviction as we love and serve our community, holding fast to the truth: “He is Risen!” -Pastor Brad
