

Crossover Parent(s) Prayer Confession

Father God, in the Name of Jesus, we thank you for the Crossover youth. We thank you for their lives, purpose, and journey with you. We thank you for their parents/guardians and trusted adults who cover and care for them. Father, we thank you for a successful school year. We thank you because they have the mind of Christ, and they easily retain all that they learn. Lord, we thank you that we do not accept labels that the world may try to place on them. Father, we know that you have wired each young person uniquely for the call on their life. We know that since they are made in your image and likeness, there is nothing they can't accomplish.

Father, we thank you that their worth does not come from their grade point average, accomplishments, or trophies. We come against the spirit of perfectionism that will tempt them to seek their identity in performance rather than relationship with you. Lord, we call them accepted and loved. We uproot every seed planted telling them they have to earn love. Father, let your children know that they are already loved because they belong to you. Father, we thank you for making parents/guardians sensitive to your Spirit, and that they will weigh their words carefully. I thank you for healing wounds in the parents/guardians so their wounds are not repeated in the next generation.

Father, we thank you for a hedge of protection around them physically, mentally, and spiritually. Lord, we thank you for a healthy school year. No matter what illness or diseases surround them, it cannot enter their bodies. Father, we thank you for strengthening their immune systems and for giving divine strategy on what they need to consume to maintain healthy immune systems and healthy bodies overall. Father, we cancel premature death, freak accidents, sports injuries, and any other matter of harm that seeks our youth.

Father, we plead the blood of Jesus over their minds. As they grow and their hormones change, Father we thank you for being a mind regulator. Father, we do not accept cultural norms of unstable moods. Father, we thank you that your peace, which surpasses ALL understanding, would saturate the hearts and minds of the youth. We silence the voice of the enemy in their ears. Father, we thank you that they will be able to hear your loving voice through their parents, godly friends, and trusted community.

Father, let them ALWAYS know that they are loved and seen, no matter what they may hear in school. Father, we come against self-harm in the name of Jesus. Father, we thank you for being a mind regulator no matter what circumstances they may face this school year. Father, may your children never feel alone or abandoned. Remind them that you will never leave nor forsake them. Lord, when people may fail them, may your love and grace wrap around their hearts like a blanket.

Father, we come against every manner of mental instability. We command for the chemistry in their brains to become balanced. We declare their nervous systems are regulated during times of pressure or feeling overwhelmed. Father, we thank you for the cultivation of godly friendships in Crossover and in their schools. We thank you for godly teachers who will speak life when they may need a little extra encouragement. We come against the agenda of the culture and declare the only truth they will stand on is the Word.

Father, give them courage to come to you or their parents/guardians with their questions, doubts, or fears. We thank you that the spirit of fear does not operate in our youth because you have given them the spirit of power, love, and a sound mind. Help our youth to shine in the classrooms, on the field, on the court, and wherever the soles of their feet may tread. Father, we declare courage over our youth. They will not bend to peer pressure but stand boldly in their identity as blood-bought followers of Christ. May they know they are not too young to serve you and to declare the good news of the gospel. We thank you that miracles, signs, and wonders follow them because they believe.

Father, we declare that our youth will do great exploits for your glory. Things that have been difficult in previous school years will be easy this year, all because of your glory resting upon them. We declare joy will always be their portion, and they will always remember that the LORD is ALWAYS good. We ask that the fire of the Holy Ghost consume them and burn up everything not from Heaven. In the mighty name of Jesus we pray. Amen!
