Lent

Why do we celebrate Lent for 40 days?

The Church celebrates Lent for 40 days to primarily commemorate the temptation of Jesus in the wilderness as found in Luke 4:1-13. In addition, the number 40 has deep Biblical significance in that it represents times of testing, atonement, and formation.

What would you say
if someone asked,
"Why do you believe in God?"

This week our students will learn how to share their faith with confidence, clarity, and kindness. We will practice real conversations, tackle tough questions, and discover you don't have to have every answer - just a willing heart.

Join us in Sunday School
as we learn more through Apologetics.

Thank You!

Thank you all for the wonderful retirement sendoff! Serving Bainbridge First Methodist as Financial Secretary has been such a rewarding experience. I will always cherish the kindness and patience you extended me. Please stop by the office to welcome Suzanne Brandt as she steps into this role. I know she will be a blessing to us all.

Sincerely,

Ginger Johnson
