

Justin & Jessie

“What’s the matter? Why are you crying?” His mom sat down on the bed and pulled him close.

“I’m scared,” Jeremy answered. “I don’t know anybody at the new house. I don’t want to go.”

What You Heard In the Word

- Abram obeyed God. His faith allowed him to trust in God.
- Rewards on earth will not last. Only God’s eternal rewards in heaven will last forever.

OutWord For Family Discussion

Suppose your friend says to you, “I don’t think there is a heaven. No one has ever seen it. How can we know about it? I just don’t believe it.” What will you say?

No, we can’t see heaven. But God doesn’t want us to see it yet; He wants us to have faith in Him and His Word. Faith is believing things we don’t see. But the Bible has a lot to say about heaven. Jesus said that He was going to prepare a place for those who believe in Him and that we would one day be in that place with Him. These are promises from the Bible, and I believe them. Jesus wouldn’t lie!

In “Cousins Coming” Jessie’s cousin Jeremy is worried. He has to move away from his school and his friends on the soccer team. But what will happen in the new place? Will he be able to find new friends or a new soccer team?

Go to KidsAnswers.org/jj33 to read the rest of the story and print out this week’s Justin and Jessie coloring sheet.