

MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Joseph Lesson 1

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: GREEN

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

On your next drive, talk about ways we trust in God every day. Our trust ranging from simple things we might take for granted – like having food on the table – to more spiritual – like seeking ways to step out in faith to share the good news.

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

With your kids, dig out the most colorful coat in the closet (or “make” one with construction paper and staples). Retell the story of Joseph and his brothers in Genesis 37:3-4, 17-35. Talk about what a scary time that must have been for Joseph, but how he never stopped trusting God.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

At dinnertime, encourage each family member to look back over their day and recount the ways that God provided, protected, and took care of them. Emphasize the importance of putting our trust in God, in good times and in bad.

AT BEDTIME:

Snuggle up and read the memory verse: “Trust in the Lord with all your heart. Do not depend on your own understanding.” Proverbs 3:5 (NirV). Talk about how hard it can be to trust in God when things seem to be going badly, and how it's crucial during those times to have faith.
