A FIVE-DAY JOURNEY OF FAITH & MISSION

SEND ME

5-Day Bible Reading Plan & Devotional Guide

BASED ON THE SERMON "SEND ME"

SEE THE NEED • ANSWER THE CALL • GO

DAY 01 / FIVE

Seeing People Through God's Eyes

SCRIPTURE READING

Acts 3:1-10

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Peter and John did not look away from the man at the gate. They fixed their gaze on him and saw a human being, not an inconvenience. In a world that moves fast and looks past the broken, God calls his people to stop and truly see. The man wanted money, but he needed healing. Often those around us are asking for one thing while desperately needing another. Ask God today to give you his eyes. When you begin to see people as his creation rather than as interruptions, compassion becomes possible and the gospel becomes personal.

REFLECT

Who in your daily life have you been walking past without truly seeing?

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Today, make intentional eye contact with someone you might normally overlook and acknowledge them with genuine kindness.

DAY 02 / FIVE

The Harvest Is Already Ready

SCRIPTURE READING

John 4:35-38

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Jesus told his disciples not to wait for the right season. The fields, he said, are already white and ready for harvest. The tendency within the church is to plan, prepare, and postpone. We schedule revivals, organize outreach events, and wait for the perfect moment. But Jesus points to the present. The harvest is not coming. It is here. The people around you right now, in your neighborhood, your workplace, your family, are ready to hear the good news. God is not waiting on a program. He is waiting on willing people who will lift their eyes and go.

REFLECT

What are you waiting for before you feel ready to share your faith with someone?

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Write down the name of one person in your life who does not yet know Jesus and commit to praying for them every day this week.

DAY 03 / FIVE

Here I Am, Send Me

SCRIPTURE READING

Isaiah 6:1-8

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

Isaiah stood in the presence of God and witnessed his glory. Confronted with that holiness, Isaiah recognized his own unworthiness. Yet when God asked who would go, Isaiah did not hesitate. He did not say he was unqualified, untrained, or unsure. He said, here I am, send me. The call of God has never required perfection. It has always required availability. The mission field does not belong only to pastors, theologians, or those who have been in church for decades. It belongs to every person who has encountered the living God and is willing to make themselves available to be used by him.

REFLECT

What fears or feelings of inadequacy have kept you from saying, "Send me"?

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Spend time in prayer today surrendering your excuses to God and asking him to make you available for whatever assignment he has for you this week.

DAY 04 / FIVE

Compassion That Moves

SCRIPTURE READING

Matthew 9:35-38

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

When Jesus saw the crowds, he did not see a problem to manage. He saw people who were distressed and scattered, like sheep without a shepherd, and he was moved with compassion. Compassion in Scripture is never passive. It always leads to action. Jesus responded to what he saw by healing, teaching, and ultimately sending his disciples out. He then turned to those same disciples and told them to pray for more workers because the harvest was plentiful. The need is not a lack of opportunity. The need is a lack of people willing to be moved by what moves the heart of God.

REFLECT

When was the last time the condition of someone around you stirred you deeply enough to act?

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Identify one tangible need in your community this week and take a concrete step toward meeting it, whether through prayer, a resource, or a conversation.

DAY 05 / FIVE

Go and Make Disciples

SCRIPTURE READING

Matthew 28:18-20

TODAY'S DEVOTIONAL

The Great Commission is not a suggestion reserved for missionaries and clergy. It is a command given to every follower of Jesus Christ. The word go implies movement, direction, and purpose. Jesus did not say wait until the world comes to you. He said go into the world. Discipleship multiplies when ordinary people take the gospel into ordinary places, the grocery store, the workplace, the neighborhood. One conversation leads to another. One life changed influences the next. The math of the kingdom does not follow human logic. It follows divine multiplication. You do not need to know everything. You simply need to go.

REFLECT

What does your daily life look like as a mission field, and what one step can you take today to engage it more intentionally?

PUT FAITH INTO ACTION

Share something about your faith this week with the person whose name you wrote down on Day 2. It does not have to be a lengthy conversation. A simple, sincere word about what God has done in your life is enough to plant a seed.
