

Sandra Kay Romberger
October 24, 1955 – August 17, 2026

Sandra Kay Romberger, beloved mother, grandmother, sister, wife, and friend, passed away peacefully on August 17, 2026, in Lacey, Washington. She was born on October 24, 1955, in Kalamazoo, Michigan, to Richard and Rita Fuhrman, both of whom preceded her in death.

Sandra graduated from John F. Kennedy High School in La Palma, California, class of 1973. She continued her education at Cypress College in Cypress, California, completing the Radiology program. She went on to build a meaningful career in healthcare, earning credentials as a Registered Health Information Technician and a Certified Professional in Healthcare Quality in Seattle, Washington. Throughout her career, Sandra worked in healthcare, including at Qualis Health of Seattle for 25 years, Evergreen Hospital, and Overlake Hospital. She was dedicated to her work and to helping others.

On August 30, 2008, Sandra married Rodney Romberger at Wedgwood Community Church. Together they made their home in Lacey, Washington for the past 14 years.

Sandra was a woman of many interests and talents. She loved gardening, sewing, cooking and baking, and especially crocheting beautiful baby blankets for loved ones. She enjoyed musical theater and plays, traveling, playing Bunco and Mexican Train, and cheering on her favorite Seattle teams, the Mariners and the Seahawks. Her creativity, humor, and generosity brought joy to those around her.

Her faith and church community were also an important part of her life. Sandra faithfully served as a church Clerk of Session and on the church Personnel Committee, giving her time and talents in service to others.

Sandra will be remembered for her thoughtful and caring nature, her kind heart, wonderful sense of humor, generosity, organizational skills, and unwavering support of the people she loved. She had a gift for making others feel cared for and valued, and her presence brought warmth and laughter to the lives of many.

Sandra is survived by her husband, Rodney Romberger; her daughters, Janel Salinas and Kathleen Triolo and her husband, Mario Triolo; her son, Jeff Salinas; her brother, Steve Fuhrman and his wife, Lorri Fuhrman; her sister, Linda Harris; and her grandchildren, Aaliyah Salinas, Siena Triolo, and Luca Triolo. She was also an aunt to many nieces and nephews. Sandra was preceded in death by her parents, Richard and Rita Fuhrman, and her sister, Debbie Norris.

In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests that memorial donations be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Sandra's memory.

Sandra leaves behind a legacy of love, kindness, laughter, faith, and caring that will continue through her family, friends, and all those whose lives she touched. She will be deeply missed and lovingly remembered.

Lacey Presbyterian Church

3045 Carpenter Road SE Lacey, Washington 98503 (360) 491-7722
Email: Office@laceypres.org Website: www.laceypres.org

A Celebration of Life and Love

Sandra Kay Romberger
October 24, 1955 - August 17, 2026

Celebration of Life
August 29, 2026; 2:00 pm

Lacey Presbyterian Church
Reverend Rachel Young

A witness to the resurrection of Jesus Christ and in memory of

Sandra Kay Romberger

Prelude

Welcome

Call to Worship

John 11:25-26; Revelation 1:17-18

Opening Prayer

Hymn

“Holy, Holy, Holy”

Sharing & Remembrances

“A Letter to Ma” Siena Triolo

“Remembering Mom” Kathleen Triolo

Open Mic Sharing

“Forever Babycakes” Rod Romberger

Slideshow

Song

“Create In Me A Clean Heart O God”

Scripture Readings

Hebrews 11:1; Romans 8:38-39, 14:7-9

Meditation

Pastoral Prayer

Lord’s Prayer

Hymn

“Amazing Grace”

Blessing

Postlude

The family wishes to thank everyone who came today.

You are cordially invited to join us for a reception in Dawson Hall immediately following the service hosted by the LPC Deacons.

Service was led by Reverend Rachel Young

Piano by Aaron Kelley

Tech by Kevin Hutton and Mike Ball