Where do you think most people today look to decide what is true and how they should live?

REVIEW

Have someone read the passage(s) out loud from the ESV translation or something similar. Reflect on any insights, questions, or parts that stood out from the text or the sermon. Then read the summary below.

We treasure the truth. We love and seek to obey God's word. If it's not God's word that shapes us, it will be some lesser story of the world. God's word is the better story.

LEARN

These questions help us learn God's truth about himself, us, and our world

- Look at Psalm 19:7–10. David uses words like reviving, making wise, rejoicing the heart, and enlightening the eyes to describe God's Word. Which of these descriptors do you most feel a hunger for in your life right now?
- Ephesians 4:14 warns against being “tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine.” What are the specific cultural “winds” or messaging in Round Rock right now that most easily pull believers off course?
- Read Acts 2:42–47. What evidence do you see that the apostles' teaching wasn't simply informing the early church, but forming the way they lived?

LIVE

These questions allow that truth we're learning to confront, encourage, and reshape our actual lives.

- In your daily rhythm, what habits or sources (news, social media, work culture) compete the most with Scripture for the right to shape your perspective?
- Where have you noticed yourself believing a “lesser story” about who you are, what you need, or what will make you happy?
- The sermon suggested that sometimes God's Word feels less sweet because we've learned to hunger for lesser things. What tends to shape your appetite away from God's Word?
- How can we practically help one another choose the “better story” this week?
- How is the Holy Spirit confronting, encouraging, or reshaping you personally from this text and discussion - and how could you live differently this coming week in light of it?

PRAY FOR NEEDS in the GROUP

- Ways to pray:
 - Pray about one way God spoke to you tonight through His Word
 - Pray by name for one person you know who is far from God
 - Pray for personal needs of other group members
- Pray for this ministry area of Redeemer: Pray for the elders of Redeemer Round Rock

5 GROUP DISCUSSION RULES

We want to be full of grace as we meet, deepening our relationship with one another and with Christ. These five values help us know our P.L.A.C.E. in our GC's and Huddles.

1. Pray - Prayer is a space for confession, struggle, and praise. Keep requests focused on yourself and your immediate family, so we can pray specifically and personally.
2. Listen - Be present and attentive. Share with humility, be mindful of time, and remember: silence is okay.
3. Apply - Answer honestly. Consider how God's Word speaks into your life, and what it might look like to respond.
4. Confess - Confession and repentance are signs of maturity. We meet one another with grace, not shame.
5. Encourage - Practical advice is helpful, but truth is better. Speak the gospel into each other's hearts and stories.
