Connecting Questions from The Art of Asking Better Questions by J. R. Briggs

Question 1

What was the highlight of your past week?

(A more intentional question that leads to better conversation than “How are you?”)

Question 2

What would constitute a perfect day for you?

(This helps to learn their hobbies and interests.)

Question 3

How did you get into that hobby or your line of work?

(This is a good follow-up question to get them to share part of their story behind their vocation or interests.)
