Unlikely Participants in Palm Sunday

Matthew 21: 1-16

Thesis: Jesus and His disciples are nearing Jerusalem. This marked the beginning of the end...and the start of a brand new beginning. The trial and crucifixion of Jesus was near. The resurrection would occur in just three days. The birth of the Church was going to follow soon thereafter. This morning we look at three “Unlikely Participants” in this Palm Sunday: the colt, the crowd, and the children.

I. One Unlikely Participant: The Colt (vv.2-7)

- A. Jesus gave His disciples a strange instruction
- B. He asked them to bring Him an unbroken colt
- C. We are to bring to Jesus those with unbroken wills

II. Other Unlikely Participants: The Crowd (vv.8-11)

- A. The multitude spread their garments before Jesus
- B. They praised Jesus
- C. Soon their praise turned to jeers! How fickle!

III. The Final Unlikely Participants: The Children (vv.12-16)

- A. The cleansing of the temple, healings, and anger
- B. The children were still praising Him!
- C. The importance of reaching all age children
- D. The Lord’s pleasure at praising children

Life Application: Is your will like that of a stubborn unbroken donkey? Are you surrendered to the Savior? Are you occupied with His praise? Do you have childlike faith? Are you wise as these children that truly were drawn to Jesus and recognized Him for who He really was and still is today? Be a willing participant in Palm Sunday. Surrender your will to Him and praise Him!

Congratulations to those who have Birthdays or Anniversaries in March
