What Does It Take To Make A Great Mother?

Matthew 15: 21-28

Thesis: Many women in the Bible would provide sermon texts for Mother's Day. We could talk about the mother of Moses or the mother of Samuel. We could talk about Hagar, the mother of Ishmael. We could talk about Mary, the mother of Jesus. Today we look at a woman whose name we do not know. She was a woman of great faith—a woman who received an answer to her prayer. A woman of great faith that was a great woman and that is what makes a great mother!

I. A Mother Reveals Her Problem (21-23)

- A. Many troubled mothers are in the world
- B. This woman was troubled about her daughter
- C. Her daughter was demon possessed

II. A Mother Remains Persistent in Prayer (22-27)

- A. She came to Jesus with her problem
- B. She believed everything about Jesus
- C. She was persistent in spite of discouragement

III. A Mother Receives A Promise from the Lord (28)

- A. "Woman you have great faith!"
- B. The world's best compliment
- C. Her daughter was made whole instantly

Life Application: There has never been a mother (nor a father) that did not have a problem with her child. Do as this faithful mother did—come to Jesus with all your problems—including problems with your children. The world has been and continues to be changed by women of great faith. Be a person of great faith and allow God to work through you to be the kind of person He wants you to be in every aspect of your life.
