

Thanking God for every good thing

Talk About the Bible Story

Open the Bible together and read James 1:17; Philippians 4:8 or watch the video together on the Parent Cue app.

Engagement Questions

- In what ways have I experienced God's goodness recently that I may have overlooked?
- How does our everyday attitude shape the emotional and spiritual atmosphere of our home?
- What would change in my family if gratitude became a daily practice instead of an occasional response?

Faith and Character Activity

MEMORY VERSE

Every good and perfect gift is from God. This kind of gift comes down from the Father who created the heavenly lights. These lights create shadows that move. But the Father does not change like these shadows.
James 1:17 NIV

Prayer

Dear God, help us notice Your goodness in the middle of our everyday lives and teach us to focus on what is true, lovely, and worthy of praise. Shape our hearts to become people of gratitude so our family can clearly see Your joy, peace, and faithfulness through us.

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, let them know something about them that you are grateful for—something they did, some personality trait that you admire, etc.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone at the table answer this question: “What is something you have to be grateful for this week?” (It can be something small—some weeks are like that.)

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: “What’s the best thing that has happened to you lately?”

Bed Time

Pray for each other: “God, help us to always see something we can be grateful for in each and every situation. We know it might not change the situation, but it does remind us that You can bring good to even the hardest things we go through.”
