

ANNOUNCEMENTS

PCRT • April 24–26

Next weekend Proclamation will host the 2026 Philadelphia Conference on Reformed Theology, which will focus on Declaring Our Faith: Confessions in the Modern Age. Proclamation members may register at no cost at <https://bit.ly/PPC2026PCRT>. Today is the final day to register.

Christianity Explored Training • May 16

We look forward to welcoming Rico Tice to Proclamation on Saturday, May 16, from 9 a.m. - 2 p.m., for a workshop focused on motivating, mobilizing, and training in evangelism. Pick up a flyer in the narthex or learn more at <https://bit.ly/PPCMay2026evangelismtraining>. The cost is $15, with a 2 for 1 deal, so register with a friend or family member.

Kids Camp 2026 • Volunteers Needed

Registration for our Summer Kids Camp 2026 is filling up and we are in need of additional volunteers, including 5 classroom teachers to serve with Pre-K and Kindergarten students. The dates are Monday to Friday, July 13-17, in the mornings. Email antonio@proclamation.org if you are interested in serving for all or part of the week.

Kids Camp Registration

Register for this year's Kids Camp (VBS) at proclamation.org/kidscamp. All children ages 4 years old (potty trained required) by July 1st through completed 5th grade are welcome to participate. Class space is limited and availability is first come/first serve.

Meal Ministry

Proclamation's Meal Ministry provides meals for church members who experience a major life event. To participate in the Meal Ministry by providing meals, contact Betsy Brubaker (meals@proclamation.org). Volunteers receive an e-mail when a meal need is identified and may then sign up to deliver a meal or to provide a restaurant gift card via e-mail.

The diaconal Compassion Committee provides counseling as well as financial and material assistance to those in need, in the spirit of Christ's compassion to his people and the world. Committee members are Jeff Firges (chair), Chris Cooper, Lauren Leisner, Tina Simon, Susan Wambua, and Matthew Craig. Their contact information is in the church directory. If you need help or know someone who does, contact any member of the committee. If you are interested in serving on the committee, contact Jeff Firges. Financial contributions to the Compassion Fund may be made as a designated gift; please designate "Compassion Fund" on your check or with your online donation.

INVOCATION

HYMN N° 273 Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

DECLARATION OF FAITH* Westminster Larger Catechism, q. 52

Leader: How was Christ exalted in his resurrection?

Congregation: Christ's exaltation in his resurrection began with his body not decaying, since it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him. On the third day, he rose again from the dead by his own power and in the very same body with all its essential qualities in which he had suffered (but it was not subject to death and the other infirmities associated with this life), and it was truly united to his soul.

By his resurrection, he plainly declared himself to be the Son of God, to have satisfied divine justice, to have conquered death as well as him who holds the power of death, and to be Lord of the living and the dead. He did all this as a general representative of humanity and as head of his church in order to justify believers, make them alive in his grace, support them against their enemies, and assure them that they too will be resurrected from the dead at the last day.

HYMN N° 706* Jesus Lives, and So Shall I

How Beautiful
arr. Bruce Greer

How beautiful, the hands that served the wine and the bread and the sons of the earth. How beautiful, the feet that walked the long dusty roads and the hill to the cross. How beautiful is the body of Christ. How beautiful, the heart that bled, that took all my sin and bore it instead. How beautiful, the tender eyes that chose to forgive and never despise. How beautiful is the body of Christ. And as he laid down his life, we offer this sacrifice—that we will live just as he died, willing to pay the price.

How beautiful, the radiant bride who waits for her groom with his light in her eyes. How beautiful, when humble hearts give the fruit of pure lives so that others may live. How beautiful is the body of Christ. How beautiful, the feet that bring the sound of good news and the love of the King. How beautiful, the hands that serve the wine and the bread and the sons of the earth. How beautiful is the body of Christ. — Twila Paris
