

“From A Thread To Fully Clothed”

Tzitzit

Tassels, known in Hebrew as tzitzit, are specialized fringes attached to the four corners of garments.

Hijab

Numbers 15:37-39

The Lord said to Moses, “Speak to the people of Israel, and tell them to make tassels on the corners of their garments throughout their generations, and to put a cord of blue on the tassel of each corner. And it shall be a tassel for you to look at and remember all the commandments of the Lord, to do them, not to follow after your own heart and your own eyes, which you are inclined to whore after.” (ESV)

Clearly the purpose is that by looking at the tassels, the Jews remember to perform the 613 commandments and avoid following their own hearts/eyes in disobedience.

Note: While traditionally worn by men, some liberal Jewish traditions (Conservative and Reform) also encourage women to wear tallit.
