

CAMP ALIVE

Transportation Information

Means of Transportation: 1 Charter bus, 3 Personal Vehicles

Lunch Information:

Thursday, June 4th BYOL – Bring your own lunch to eat on the bus during transit. This can be a sack lunch or a meal from Chic-fil-a. Our first meal at the camp facility won't be until dinner.

Monday, June 8th – Camp Alive will be providing sack lunches for all the kids to eat during transit.

Check-in Information for Thursday

- Check-in at 10:30am inside the church office
- Go straight into the office to check-in and receive your shirt. DO NOT LOAD ANYTHING ONTO THE BUS.
- Luggage Details:
 - Each student will receive 2 luggage tags for their bags that go under the bus
 - If you have loose bedding such as a sleeping bag, pillow, sheets, or blanket and you want it loaded under the bus, it needs to be placed in a large plastic bag so that it can receive a luggage tag.

- A bookbag/backpack that stays with the student on the bus, doesn't need a luggage tag
- All items placed under the bus with a luggage tag, will be delivered to the appropriate cabin upon arrival at camp.

Check-out Information for Monday

- We hope to leave Camp Alive no later than 12, which puts our arrival at 5pm.
- A remind text will be sent out 30 minutes before arrival
