MY NEXT STEP TODAY IS TO:

- Put my trust in Jesus so that I can be made righteous and can receive God's gracious healing for my broken heart.
- Name the source of my broken heart. Bring it into the light.
- Bring my broken heart to the Lord and ask Him to heal the hurt and/or the damage.
- More fully accept God's wisdom and timing in dealing with my broken heart.
- Cling to God's promised presence with me as I wait for His healing work.
