

EMPOWERED

Week 1

The Holy Spirit is not a force to use but a Person to know. This week, we explore how understanding His nature transforms our relationship with Him and moves us from occasional moments into daily, Spirit-led living.

Discussion Questions

1. The Holy Spirit Is a Person, Not a Force (John 14:16–17; John 16:13)

- What are some ways people commonly misunderstand the Holy Spirit?
- How does knowing the Holy Spirit is a Person change how we relate to Him?
- What does it practically look like to be led by the Holy Spirit in daily life?

2. The Holy Spirit Desires Relationship (John 14:17)

- Why do many believers settle for “moments” instead of a daily relationship with the Holy Spirit?
- What areas of your life are easiest—or hardest—to invite the Holy Spirit into?
- How would your life change if you became more aware of His constant presence?

3. Misunderstanding Leads to Powerless Living (Acts 1:8)

- What does a “powerless” Christian life look like in real terms?
- How have you seen the Holy Spirit bring strength, boldness, or change in your life or others?
- What might be limiting people from walking in the power of the Holy Spirit today?

4. The Holy Spirit Wants All of You

- What does it mean to be continually “filled with the Spirit”?
- What is one area of your life that is difficult to fully surrender to God?
- How can surrender lead to greater freedom rather than restriction?

LIVING IT OUT

The Holy Spirit desires daily relationship, not occasional moments. This week, practice awareness and surrender so you can grow in sensitivity to His voice and begin living a truly Spirit-led life.

1. Daily Awareness (Morning Pause): Start each day: “Holy Spirit, lead me today.”
2. Daily Obedience: Act on one prompting each day- Encourage someone, pray for someone, or pause before reacting—choose obedience over impulse.
