

EMPOWERED

Week 4

29 Willow Rd. Royal Oaks, CA 95076

Pentecost was not just a moment in history—it was the fulfillment of God’s promise and the beginning of a Spirit-empowered Church. The same Holy Spirit who filled the upper room still fills, transforms, and empowers believers today.

Discussion Questions

1. Pentecost Fulfilled God’s Promise

(Acts 2:16-17; Joel 2:28-29)

- Why was Peter’s statement, “This is that,” so important in Acts 2?
- What does Pentecost teach us about God keeping His promises?
- How does Joel 2:28–29 challenge the idea that the Holy Spirit is only for certain people?

2. The Spirit Empowers Ordinary People

(Acts 2:1-4)

- Why do you think God chose ordinary, imperfect people to fill and send?
- What insecurities often keep believers from stepping out in faith?
- How have you seen the Holy Spirit turn weakness into boldness?

3. Pentecost Still Matters Today

(Acts 2:38-39)

- Why do some believers treat Pentecost as only a past event?
- What does Acts 2:38–39 reveal about who the promise is for?
- What would change in your daily life if you lived more expectant of the Holy Spirit's work?

LIVING IT OUT

The Holy Spirit still fills hungry and surrendered hearts. This week, practice living with expectation, surrender, and awareness of His presence in everyday moments.

- Daily Hunger: Pray each morning - “Holy Spirit, fill me fresh today.” Ask yourself - Where do I need fresh fire, boldness, or renewal?
- Daily Expectation: Look for one opportunity each day to - Pray for someone, Encourage someone, Share your testimony, Respond quickly to God's prompting
