Mythbuster #5, "Everyone Needs to Find Their Soulmate"

Why the push toward believing this myth?

1. _____ relationships
2. _____ teaching

What are the problems with this myth?

1. Puts God's _____ in a box
2. Puts God's _____ in a box
3. Places our selfish desires _____
4. Passes over the ideas of _____, _____ and growing

Discussion Questions:

- What are the elements of this soulmate myth (or the elements of being single) that you have adopted through the years, that you now need to work to correct?
- When is the last time you invited a single person over for dinner (without trying to set them up or ask about their dating life)?
- Do you ever get frustrated with God's gracious knack of giving you more than one option?
- Many of the myths convey the desire for that which is easy, painless, comfortable, or enjoyable. Why is that?
