Resurrection Power & New Life

April invites us to deeply engage with the transformative truth of Christ's resurrection. It's a month dedicated to understanding and applying the power that conquered death, offering us not just hope for eternity, but a vibrant, new life here and now. This power is available to overcome every hopeless situation, transform our minds, and empower us to walk in daily victory.

Throughout April, we will explore what it means to be made new in Christ, shed old ways, and live out a compelling testimony of God's work in our lives. We'll discover how the resurrection is not just a historical event, but a living, active force that shapes our present and propels us into our God-given destiny. Prepare to experience a fresh outpouring of divine power as you embrace the newness He offers.

Week 1: The Power of the Resurrection

Scripture: Luke 24:1-7

- What does the resurrection reveal about God's power over death and hopeless situations?
- Why do the disciples struggle to believe what God had already promised?
- Where do you need resurrection power to bring new life in your own circumstances?

Week 2: Made New in Christ

Scripture: 2 Corinthians 5:17

- What does it truly mean to be a "new creation" in Christ?
- What old ways, habits, or mindsets must be released to walk fully in newness?
- How should new life in Christ shape how you live and relate to others?

Week 3: Walking in Newness

Scripture: Romans 6:4

- What does it mean to "walk" daily in newness of life rather than just believe it?
- How does baptism symbolize both death to the old self and life in Christ?
- What practical steps help you live out this new life consistently?

Week 4: Testimony & Transformation

Scripture: Revelation 12:11

- Why is personal testimony such a powerful spiritual weapon?
- How has God transformed you through past struggles or victories?
- Who might God be calling you to encourage by sharing your testimony?

Biography of Dr. Melanie R. Hill

Melanie R. Hill, Ph.D., is Named Term Chair Andrew W. Mellon Assistant Professor of Global Racial Justice and Assistant Professor of American Literature with specializations in African American Literature, Black Music Performance, and Womanist Literature/Thought/Theology in the Department of English at Rutgers University, Newark. Hill received her Ph.D. in English Literature with two graduate certificates in Africana Studies and Women, Gender, and Sexuality Studies from the University of Pennsylvania. Dr. Hill has been a reviewer for the Yale Journal of Music and Religion and published articles on the art of the sermon in African American literature, Black feminism/womanist theology, the literary and musicological histories of Black women preachers, and on the musicological works of blues and jazz vocalists Bessie Smith and Ella Fitzgerald under the James Baldwin Review, Religions Journal, and Oxford University Press, respectively.

Her newly released book, Colored Women Sittin' on High: Womanist Sermonic Practice in Literature and Music (UNC Press), focuses on the ways in which Black women preachers in African American literature, music, and in the space of the pulpit counter social injustices through sermon and song. Colored Women Sittin' on High has been officially endorsed and praised by both Alice Walker, author of The Color Purple, and civil rights legend, Ruby Sales.

In addition to her scholarship, Dr. Hill is a classically-trained Gospel Soul Violinist with 36 years of musical experience, who has performed at the White House on two occasions under the Obama administration, Carnegie Hall in New York, the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C., the Apollo Theater, the Staples Center in Los Angeles, the Smithsonian National Museum of African American History and Culture, and for Pope Francis's Papal Mass. Hill has also been featured on Showtime at the Apollo, Good Day Philadelphia, Philadelphia Style Magazine, NY1, BET, TV One, and has performed for Alice Walker, Senator Rev. Dr. Raphael G. Warnock, Ms. Sabrina Fulton, Dr. Johnnetta B. Cole, Mrs. Susan L. Taylor, and opened for John Legend and Jonathan McReynolds. In honor of precious lives lost during the global pandemic, Dr. Hill performed at Black Lives Matter Plaza in Washington, D.C. and opened for the National Council of Churches before the sermon of Bishop Michael B. Curry, the 27th presiding Bishop and primate of the Episcopal Church.

Dr. Hill is grateful for God's blessings and remains focused as a scholar spreading knowledge along the intersections of literature, music, womanist theology, and sharing inspiration through her Gospel violin.
