MESSAGE FROM OUR PASTOR

Greetings Church Family!

First, I want to tell you about the great time men from FBC Pearsall and men from other areas of South Texas gathered together for Cast Iron. We prayed, worshipped, and studied the Bible together. It was a great time together and if you missed this one get ready to attend the next one.

Christ's sacrifice satisfied the Father's anger so that, as his child, you will receive his discipline but need not fear his wrath.

You do not have to live in fear of God's anger. On your very worst, most rebellious, and most faithless day, you can run into the holy presence of your heavenly Father and he will not turn you away. Your acceptance has not been, nor will it ever be, based on your performance. You have not been welcomed into an eternal relationship with God because you have kept the law, but because Jesus did. If you obey God for a thousand years, you will not have earned more of his acceptance than you were granted the very first moment you believed. Here's how radical the gospel of grace really is—you do not have to be something before God because Jesus accomplished everything on your behalf.

Since you are God's child and he loves you dearly, he disciplines you. But in the face of his loving discipline, a very important distinction needs to be made. His discipline is not punishment for your sin, because all of your punishment has been borne by your Savior, Jesus. The father's discipline is designed to change your heart. His discipline is not teaching you what to do to earn your place as one of his children; his careful, loving discipline actually proves that you are one of his children:

It is for discipline that you endure; God deals with you as with sons; for what son is there whom his father does not discipline? But if you are without discipline, of which all have become partakers, then you are illegitimate children and not sons. Furthermore, we had earthly fathers to discipline us, and we respected them; shall we not much rather be subject to the Father of spirits, and live? For they disciplined us for a short time as seemed best to them, but He disciplines us for our good, so that we may share His holiness. All discipline for the moment seems not to be joyful, but sorrowful; yet to those who have been trained by it, afterwards it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness. - Hebrews 12:7-11

So, God's discipline is an instrument of his grace. It is a continuation of his work of personal heart-and-life transformation. God's discipline is not him turning his angry back on us. It is God turning his face of grace toward us once again, and he will continue to do this until his grace has finished its work. – New Morning Mercies

TOLLA

Spring blessings to All!

Enrollment for TOLLA for the 2026-2027 school year has officially started. This is both for returning and new students who want to secure a spot for next year's program. As always, we are praying for 100 total students this coming year, so please spread the word! The registration packet is available on our website at www.treeoflifelearningacademy.com or can be picked up in our TOLLA office Monday through Thursday from 8-3. As a ministry of FBC of Pearsall, I encourage each one of you to continue to be ambassadors for our school program during this enrollment period by sharing information about our school with your family, friends, and neighbors.

One of our most enjoyed school activities is the celebration of Dr. Seuss' birthday. This happens in schools around the nation as they host National Week for Reading with many reading activities. We will be celebrating during the week of March 2-6th. We need volunteers who would like to come into the classrooms and read Dr. Seuss books to our students. Let me know if you can do this and I will set you up with a class. Pray for our school as we go through the accreditation process. This will allow us to take in more students via the Texas Education Freedom Accounts program and grow into a more competitive school for our community. As always, thanks for your continued support!

Be blessed!
