Greetings Church Family!

Grace doesn't help you just to do different things but to become a totally different person by changing you at the level of your heart.

I want to refer you right now to one of the Bible's best-known prayers of confession. The problem is that it's so familiar to most of us that we've quit giving it the examination that it requires in order for us to receive from it the rescue that it offers. The confession is David's in Psalm 51:1-12:

<sup>1</sup> Be gracious to me, O God, according to Your lovingkindness;

According to the greatness of Your compassion blot out my transgressions.

<sup>2</sup> Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity
And cleanse me from my sin.

<sup>3</sup> For I know my transgressions,
And my sin is ever before me.

<sup>4</sup> Against You, You only, I have sinned
And done what is evil in Your sight,
So that You are justified when You speak
And blameless when You judge.

<sup>5</sup> Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity,
And in sin my mother conceived me.

<sup>6</sup> Behold, You desire truth in the innermost being,
And in the hidden part You will make me know wisdom.

<sup>7</sup> Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.

<sup>8</sup> Make me to hear joy and gladness,
Let the bones which You have broken rejoice.

<sup>9</sup> Hide Your face from my sins
And blot out all my iniquities.
<sup>10</sup> Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
<sup>11</sup> Do not cast me away from Your presence
And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.
<sup>12</sup> Restore to me the joy of Your salvation
And sustain me with a willing spirit.

Look carefully at the words of David's prayer. This is not only a prayer of confession—it is also a cry for change. He admits that his problem is not environmental, but natal; he came into the world with it. He confesses that his problem is not external, but internal; it's a problem of the "inward being." So, he cries out for what every sinner needs: a new heart. It is something only God can create. It is the epicenter of his work of grace. He wants more than reformed behavior; he sent his Son to die for you so that you would have a new heart, one that is constantly being renewed. If your heart is your problem, then the grace of heart change is your only hope. – New Morning Mercies
