

ST. MARK'S THIS WEEK

Sunday, June 21 - Saturday, June 27, 2026

Summer Breakfasts

Sundays through August 16, 9 a.m. in Leatherbury Hall

Thank you to everyone who helped make Summer Breakfast possible this week!

Christianity Today

Sundays, 11 a.m. in the Grace House

Christianity Today, led by Doug Milne, will continue to meet this summer, Sundays at 11 a.m. in Grace House. This popular Bible study explores the life and teachings of Jesus and their relevance in the Bible, as well as books by various authors. Dialogue is welcomed and encouraged. Weekday preparation is not required. Contact: doug@milnecorpjax.com

Lunch & Learn: "We Hold These Truths"

Wednesdays through July 22, 12 p.m. in Leatherbury Hall

The Declaration of Independence is one of the most theologically audacious documents ever written, insisting that human equality is not a political invention, but a divine gift that translates into rights coming not from kings or constitutions but from the Creator himself. Where did those ideas come from, who believed them and do they still hold true? This summer, we dig into the founding documents, the faith of the Founders and the explosive question of what it means 250 years later to be both a Christian and an American. There will be no class July 1. Contact: engage@smjax.org
