

November2026

DAILY PRAYER CALENDAR

Church of the Servant • 14343 North MacArthur Boulevard • Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73142 • 405.721.4141 • ServantOKC.org

The November prayers have been written by Cindy Fast, Belongings Coordinator. The Upper Room, a daily devotional guide for United Methodists, provides a devotional reading for each of the days of November that goes with each of the Scripture readings and prayers on this month’s prayer calendar. The devotional for each day will enrich your quiet time with the Lord in the month of November.

| SUNDAY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | MONDAY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      | TUESDAY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | WEDNESDAY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | THURSDAY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | FRIDAY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     | SATURDAY                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1 Hebrews 12:1-3Heavenly Father, thank you for the great cloud of witnesses who have gone before us and have shown us how to live by faith. Let us lay down every sin that holds us back and give us strength to let go of the things that distract us. Let us always keep our eyes fixed on you. Amen. | 2 Psalm 139:19-24Heavenly Father, give us strength to turn away from anything that separates us from you. Don’t let us be guided by anger, bitterness or pride, but fill our hearts with love, grace and mercy. Thank you for knowing us completely and walking with us faithfully. Amen. | 3 Ruth 2:1-16Heavenly Father, thank you for the story of Ruth and how you are always providing even when we don’t know it. Give us hearts like Ruth that are humble and faithful showing generosity to those in need. Help us to trust you when our future is uncertain. Amen. | 4 Psalm 19:7-11Gracious God, thank you for hearing our cries in times of need. Give us strength, patience, and faith to wait for your perfect timing. Thank you for loving and caring for us. Amen.                                                                                        | 5 Matthew 6:25-34Heavenly Father, when anxiety fills our hearts, let us remember that you will take care of us. Help us to trust you with our worries and uncertainties. Give us faith to seek your kingdom and confidence that you will provide what we need. Amen. | 6 Philippians 4:6-7Heavenly Father, let us bring our worries and concerns to you in prayer. Teach us to trust your goodness even in times of uncertainty. Fill our hearts with peace and remind us that we never walk alone. Amen.                                                       | 7 Luke 15:3-7Heavenly Father, thank you for being the Good Shepherd that never gives up on us. When we wander away you welcome us back with open arms. Help us to trust in your unfailing love and to remember that each one of us is precious to you. Amen.                             |
| 8 Lamentations 3:19-33Gracious God, when we feel overwhelmed by uncertainty, help us to remember your love never fails. Thank you for always loving us and showing compassion towards us. Teach us to wait patiently for you and to place our hope in your goodness. Amen.                              | 9 Matthew 6:7-14Heavenly Father, we come to you not with words to impress, but with an open heart trusting you already know our needs before we ask. For yours in the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.                                                                    | 10 Ephesians 4:25-32Heavenly Father, let us show kindness and compassion to our neighbors. Help us to speak kind words that build us up and keep anger and bitterness away. Let us forgive one another as you forgave us. Amen.                                                | 11 Luke 22:39-46Gracious God, thank you for showing us how to pray in times of deep sorrow and struggle. When we are afraid, remind us that we can bring everything to you. Give us faith to say, “Not my will, but yours be done.” Amen.                                                  | 12 Isaiah 43:1-7Gracious God, thank you for reminding us that we are yours. When we walk through deep waters or through difficult fire, you are with us and you never let us walk alone. Help us to trust that you know us, love us, and will call us by name. Amen. | 13 1 Corinthians 13:1-13Gracious God, thank you for teaching us that love is at the heart of all we do. Help us to love others with patience, kindness, humility and grace. Teach us to live each day with faith, hope and love, but remembering that love is the greatest of all. Amen. | 14 Isaiah 60:19-21Heavenly Father, thank you for being our everlasting light. When the world seems dark or uncertain, remind us that you are always with us. Let us show your splendor in all that we do. Amen.                                                                          |
| 15 Acts 14:8-10Heavenly Father, help us to hear your word, and trust that you can do the impossible. Give us faith even when things seem impossible. Let us trust that your strength is greater than our weakness. Amen.                                                                                | 16 Samuel 5:17-21Gracious God, thank you for reminding us that we do not face our battles alone. When we are facing challenges, let us seek you and let us rely on your strength to help us through. Let us trust in you. Amen.                                                           | 17 John 1:14-18Gracious God, thank you for sending your son to live among us and showing us grace and truth. Help us to live as people who show your glory. Let grace and truth shape our words, our choices and the way we treat others. Amen.                                | 18 Mark 12:28-31Heavenly Father, thank you for reminding us that the greatest commandment is to love you with all our heart, soul, mind and strength. Help us to love our neighbors as you love us. May our words and actions reflect your love each day. Amen.                            | 19 Matthew 18:21-35Heavenly Father, thank you for always having patience and grace for us. Remind us of the great forgiveness you have shown us, so that we may freely give the same grace to others. Amen.                                                          | 20 Jeremiah 29:10-14Heavenly Father, we wait for you during difficult times, not knowing how the story ends, but knowing that you are there working, watching and keeping your promises. Remind us that your timing is not our timing, and your faithfulness never runs out. Amen.       | 21 Matthew 18:1-5Heavenly Father, teach us to come to you like children, with humble and trusting hearts. Help us to depend on you and to receive your kingdom with openness and trust. Help us to recognize others in need and to show them the way to you. Amen.                       |
| 22 Exodus 2:1-8Gracious God, thank you for your loving care and protection. Help us to trust you even when we face uncertainty and fear. Let us recognize your guiding hand and trust that you are always at work for the good. Amen.                                                                   | 23 John 20:24-29Gracious God, help us to believe even when we cannot see you. Strengthen our faith when doubts and questions enter our minds. Remind us that your love is always with us. May we always trust in you. Amen.                                                               | 24 Luke 14:15-24Heavenly Father, thank you for your love and grace. May we never be too busy to accept your invitation with open hearts. Help us to welcome others with kindness and compassion and to joyfully share your love with everyone we meet. Amen.                   | 25 Matthew 5:43-48Heavenly Father, teach us to love as you love, not only to those that are easy to love, but also to those who have hurt us. Give us forgiving hearts, kind words and the strength to pray for others, even when it is hard. May our actions reflect your goodness. Amen. | 26 Colossians 3:15-17Heavenly Father, fill our hearts with your peace and gratitude. Help us to be thankful in all things and let our words and actions bring glory to you. Teach us to live every day with grateful hearts. Amen.                                   | 27 1 Peter 4:7-11Heavenly Father, let us love one another deeply. Teach us to use our gifts to help each other as faithful stewards of yours. Let everything we do bring glory and honor to you. Amen.                                                                                   | 28 John 1:1-5Heavenly Father, thank you for sending Jesus, the light of the world. Help us to walk in his light, trust in his truth, and to share his love with everyone we meet. When things are feeling uncertain, remind us that your light will never be overcome by darkness. Amen. |
| 29 Isaiah 9:6-7Heavenly Father, thank you for the gift of our son, Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace. Fill our hearts with his peace and love and let us trust in him. Help us to share his light with those around us. Amen.                                     | 30 Romans 12:17-21Heavenly Father, give us strength to forgive those who have hurt us. May we let go of anger and choose love, showing others the same mercy you show us each day. Amen.                                                                                                  | PRAYER WILL CHANGE YOUR LIFE... PRAY ANYTIME, ANYWHERE!                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |