A Series on 1 John

May 14,
2023

Dear Gibbsville Church:

As we are wrapping up the "Commitment" Phase of our campaign, we want to thank all who were able to participate – whether with your commitments, your prayers, or your service. You joined many others in making our campaign a tremendous success!

If you were able to make a commitment – thank you, thank you, thank you!!! It has been recorded and will remain totally confidential. Should your circumstances change, necessitating an adjustment to your pledge, please notify our financial secretary, Amber Jensema, in the office. It will greatly help in our continuing financial planning.

We realize that not everyone in the congregation was able to make a commitment toward our financial goal at this time. If, however, you find that your financial circumstances change and you want to join the many who have made commitments to this project, you can give your pledge to Amber Jensema in the church office.

You all are valued investors in this project and in the future vision of our church. As such, you will receive periodic updates on the progress of the campaign and the project. Our church leaders will do our very best to keep you informed.

Thanks again!

Sincerely,

Pastor David Krueger
