Missions On The Move

Day 3 of this year's One Day At A Time mission experience will take place just up the road as we serve our neighbors in the Menasha/Appleton area who were affected by Monday's tornado. Partnering with Samaritan's Purse, volunteers will assist with tornado recovery efforts, including clearing debris, installing roof tarps, and performing chainsaw work as needed. Because of our close proximity to the disaster area, we plan to send our first team this Saturday, August 8. Additional team dates are Friday, August 14, and Wednesday, August 19.

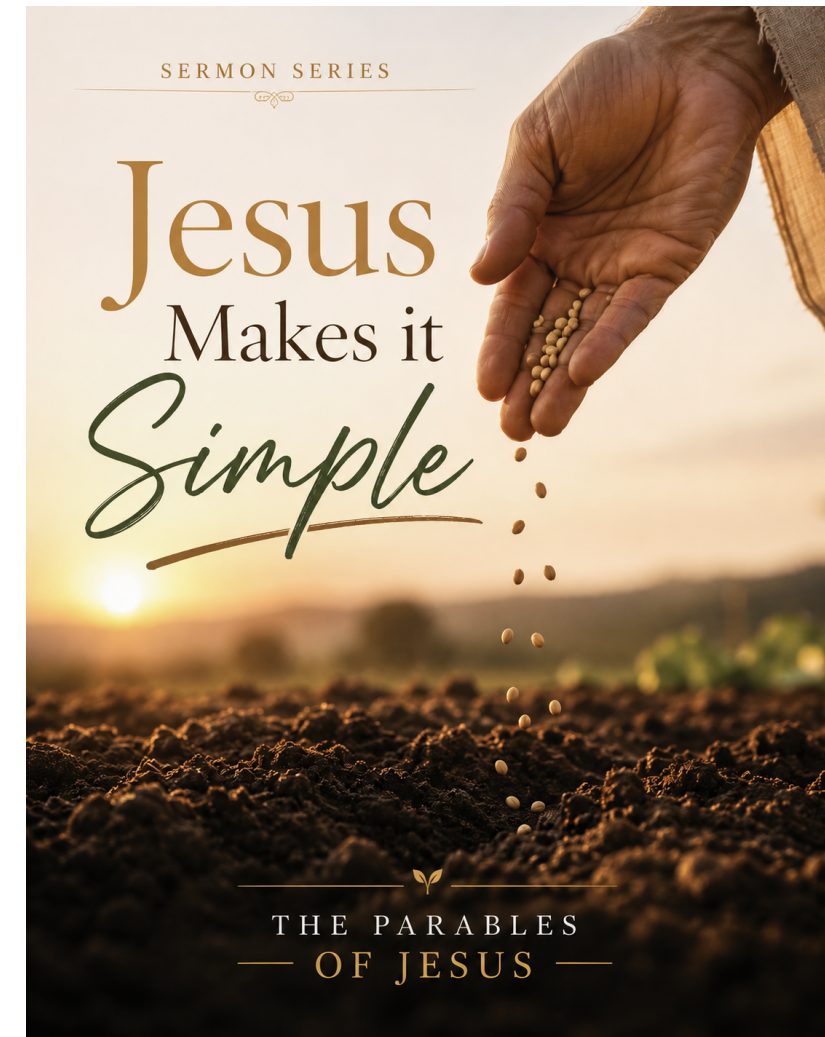

Workday Schedule:

- * Time: Arrive between 7:00-7:15 am; Orientation at 7:30 am, work until about 5:00 pm.
- * Location: Alliance Church, 2693 West Grand Chute Blvd, Appleton, WI 54913.
- * Lunch: Please pack your own lunch and water.
- * Tools & Equipment: Provided by Samaritan's Purse, but you are welcome to bring your own.
- * Volunteer Age Requirement: 14 years and older

To sign up, we have paper lists by the Missions Globe to get a general idea of who is interested and if you'd like to set up a carpool. However EVERY VOLUNTEER MUST SIGN UP INDIVIDUALLY ONLINE at www.SPVolunteer.org. Please sign up online quickly, as different service dates have already reached volunteer capacity. Please contact Dave Wensink with any questions.
