Sermon Notes

The Ultimate Purpose of Parenting

- What is the ultimate purpose of parenting?
- The ultimate purpose of parenting can be summed up in three things:
1. Loving God (Deuteronomy 6:4-5)

2. Loving our Neighbors (Deuteronomy 6:6)

3. Teaching this love to our Children (Deuteronomy 6:7)

Announcements

New Member Discovery Class
Beginning October 4, there will be a 7-week new member Discovery Class during the Sunday School hour in Matthew. If you have been thinking about joining Gibbssville Church, plan on joining us. This is a great time to learn about what we believe, what our mission is, and where you can fit in and serve. It’s also a great opportunity to answer any questions you may have about Gibbssville Church. Please reach out to Pastor David if you have any questions.

Prayers And Praises

- ~Praise God for giving us His commandments, which teach us what love looks like, and even more, for giving us His Son, who perfectly demonstrated that love and gave His life to save us from our sins.
- ~Ask God to give us hearts that genuinely love our neighbors and seek to demonstrate His love through honesty, integrity, and service.
- ~Pray for parents as they raise their children in an increasingly distracting world, that they would establish a consistent rhythm of worship and meaningful spiritual time together as a family.

Women's Bible Fellowship (Sundays, Sept. 27-Dec. 6)

Are you looking for ways to connect with others during the Sunday School hour? Women of all ages are invited downstairs to the Cafe', for specialty coffees and teas, conversation, prayer, and Bible study. There will be no homework or workbook, and if you miss some weeks, that is OK! We will split into groups to learn more about the attributes of God, exploring ten ways that God is different from us and why the boundaries He designed for us are a good thing! You are welcome to bring your little ones.

Men's Bible Fellowship (Sundays, Sept. 27-Dec. 6)

The Men's Bible Fellowship will again be meeting during the Sunday School time beginning today. Grab a coffee in the Cafe' and then meet in the Conference Room (just down from the church office) for Bible Study.

Communion

Please join us on October 4, as we celebrate the sacrament of communion together.

Missions On The Move

Missions On The Move is going digital! The Missions Committee will start utilizing the Gibbsville Church app to communicate smaller service projects with a quick turnaround time. If you'd like to join the group chat, download the Gibbsville Church app, click on the two square chat bubbles in the top right corner, click Discover, search for Missions On The Move, and request to join the group chat. We will still use the weekly bulletin announcement for larger group projects that are planned further out into the future, and we plan to use the app to address quick needs with shorter notice.

Sheboygan Warming Center Donations

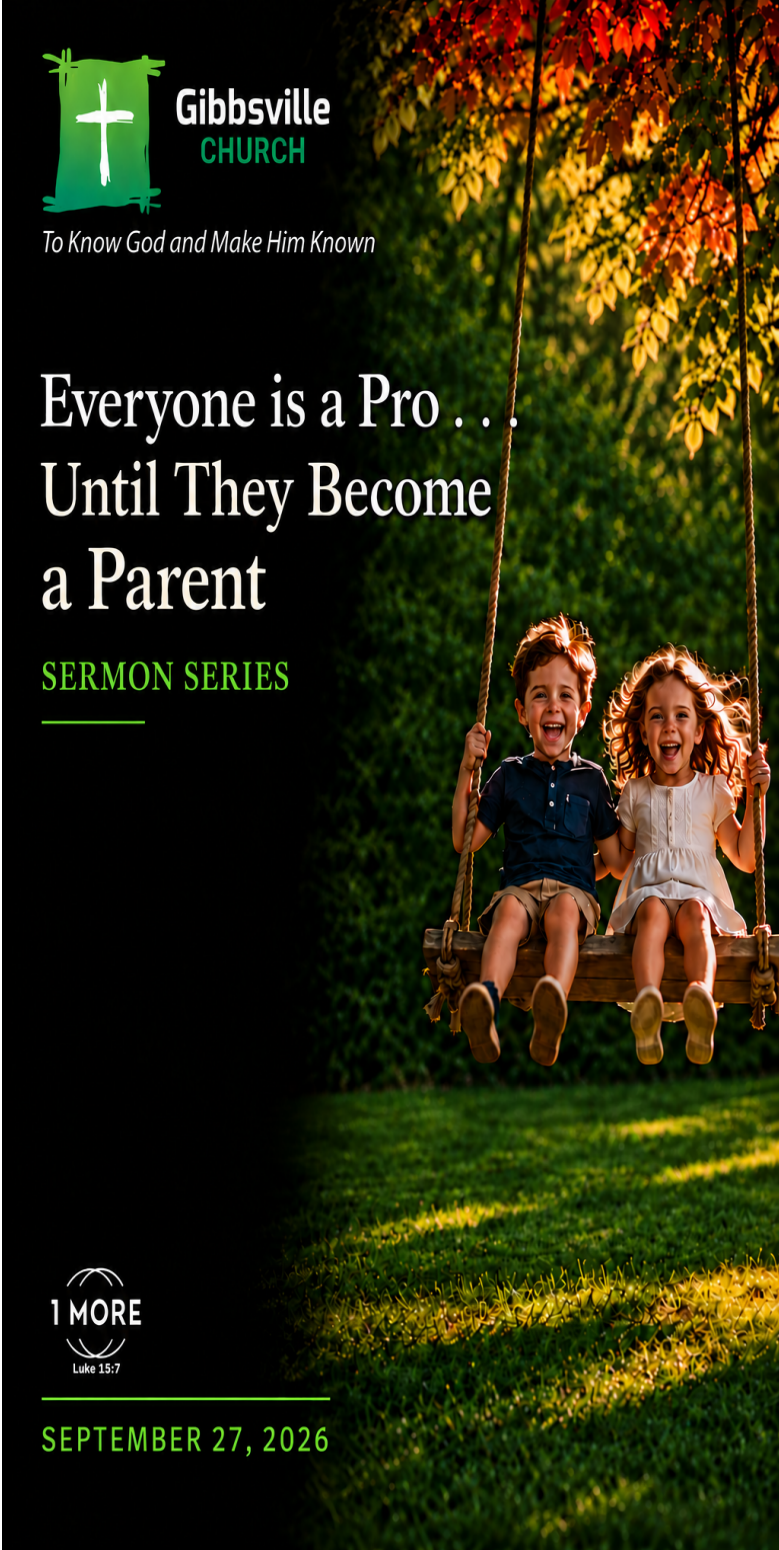

Today is the last day to donate adult men's and women's underwear and socks for guests of the Sheboygan Warming Center. Please place donations in the collection bins at the church entrances. Thank you for helping provide comfort and dignity to those in need in our community!

Grandparents Connection Corner

Whether your grandchildren are near or far, young or grown, come be part of a community that believes in the power of prayer and the impact of a faithful legacy. Join us today at 10:15 in the Chapel to find out more about this exciting new ministry.

Well Fundraiser Dinners

Mark your calendars! The Well will be hosting several fundraiser dinners over the next few months to support our youth ministry. See the flyer included in the bulletin for upcoming dinner dates and details. Thank you for supporting the students of The Well!
