

HOW TO STUDY GOD'S WORD

OBSERVATION:

1. Who? Who was writing? To whom was the original message written? Who are the people involved in the scenario? (The first few lines of each book, a study Bible, or gotquestions.org can help you with this.)
2. What? What is happening? What is said? Is it a command, exhortation, a rebuke, a question, an answer, a prayer, a quotation of other scripture, something else? What is the main point? What are the key words?
3. When? Are there time references? Are there words related to past, present, or future events?
4. Where? Are there locations mentioned?
5. Why? Are there clues about why things are being said or done?
6. How? Is there an explanation of how something is done?

INTERPRETATION:

1. The literal principle. Is it symbolic, literally, poetry?
2. The historical principle. What is the meaning to the original audience?
3. The context principle. How do we interpret this verse by the verses surrounding it?
  - a. Start with the big picture of the text. Then zoom in on the context. Finally, focus on the details.
4. The compatibility principle. The best commentary on the Bible is the Bible. What other verses “sing the same song while hitting other notes?”
5. The Jesus principle. How does it point to Jesus?

APPLICATION:

1. Is there a command to obey?
2. Is there an example to follow?
3. Is there a promise to claim?
4. Is there a sin to avoid?
5. Is there a principle to follow?
