PASTOR LEO CUMINGS

After graduating from Western Baptist Seminary in Portland, OR, Leo Cumings pastored two churches in Oregon. From 1989 until his retirement in 2012, Pastor Leo served at Bethel Church in Jackson, MI, where he still attends. Shortly after he retired, Pastor Leo's first wife died of cancer. They have two sons (both married) and 5 grandchildren. Their oldest, James raised his four kids at Bethel and is now an elder there. Their youngest is in school administration, living in Rockford with his wife and son. In 2016 Leo married his wife, Susie, who is a therapist with Olive Leaf Family Counseling Center. They just celebrated their 10th anniversary.
