Preschool
9:00-11:15	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • For Science, students will follow this curriculum in class, but families do not need to purchase this book. It is written for preschool and kindergarten levels. This book will be used by both the preschool and kindergarten classes each year. Not all of the lessons of the book will be used each year. The lessons in this book will be cycled through on a three year rotation so that a child will not have repeat lessons if he or she attends co-op for two years of preschool and also kindergarten. The students would do age appropriate (preschool vs. kindergarten) activities in class with the themes and ideas from this book. https://www.apologia.com/shop/preschool-science-student-text/ • For History, students will do unit studies of historical figures and important holidays. No need to purchase any curriculum. 	N/A	N/A
