

Jesus Never Fails

By Mike Riley

Our son Brian is an avid football fan. The interesting thing about being a fan is that the team has a way of letting folks down. And while they often have shown great promise at the beginning of a season, they have disappointed their loyal fans at the end of a season.

Thankfully, our God does not disappoint like our teams often do! Not only can we count on Him in any situation or circumstance, but He also will not disappoint us in the end, for He always keeps His promises (Joshua 21:43-45; Joshua 23:14), and His Word provides comfort, hope, and wisdom that never fails.

When King Solomon dedicated the temple, he attested that God had not let His people down. He said:

“Blessed be the Lord, who has given rest to His people Israel, according to all that He promised. There has not failed one word of all His good promise” (1 Kings 8:56).

Those words still ring true today as they did centuries ago. And better yet, we are heirs of the greatest fulfilled promise of all time — Jesus, our Savior (Gal. 4:4-5; cf. Romans 8:14-17; Gal. 3:28-29). The longer we study Him and His life, the more compelling He becomes (Romans 15:1-7).

So if we are looking for someone who won't disappoint us, we don't have to look any further than Jesus because He never fails! (Romans 15:8; 2 Corinthians 1:19-20).
