

Some Thoughts On Reconciliation

By Mike Riley

One of the greatest needs in our world today is the idea of reconciliation. To establish and maintain a healthy and proper relationship with others, we must be willing to acknowledge our share of the responsibility in that relationship and be willing to forgive when we have been wronged unconditionally.

And let us realize that partial forgiveness is no forgiveness at all.

In fully admitting our share of the guilt, we may not restore any damage done, but it will reassure the other party that our motives are well-intended.

Our admission of guilt and our willingness to forgive are the focal points around which true reconciliation revolves (Psalm 51; Ephesians 4:32; Colossians 3:12-13; cf. Matthew 6:14-15).

Let's think about it!

[13] Bear with each other and forgive one another
if any of you has a grievance against someone.
Forgive as the Lord forgave you.
Colossians 3:13 NIV
