MINISTRY HIGHLIGHT

We believe there is real hope for the struggles of life! Hope Counseling Ministries is comprised of both professional therapists and trainees. We offer GriefShare for people who have lost loved ones to death, as well as occasional varied classes and workshops, and individual, couples, and family counseling. We are not a ministry that you can particularly "join", but we do need prayer support! Right now, there are many who are in difficult family situations. Please pray that each one would be drawn to Jesus, especially with the coming holidays. As each of us rush into the holiday season, please take a minute each day to slow down. Ask the Lord to still your heart and take some big, deep breaths. As you breathe in, ask Him to bring His peace and make you aware of His presence. And as you breathe out, ask Him to take all the anxiety you are carrying. For more information about Hope Counseling please contact Sue O'Hanlon: sue@oronaz.org or 530-636-0813.

PRAYER PROMPT

We have a prayer prompt during Prayers of the People in our worship gatherings and encourage you to continue in that focus throughout the week. The Prayer Room (in the lobby) is open before and after Sunday morning worship. This is available to everyone, regardless of where you are on your faith journey. We have people there after Sunday morning worship services who can pray with you and for you, or you can use this space quietly on your own. God is ready to hear anything you have to say.

Christmas is coming and we could use some extra supplies & tree decorations! Call Carol Knight (541) 979-9424 if you have large ornaments you can donate.

Experience More of God TOGETHER!

Acts 2:42-47 (NIV)

Pastor Darlene Franks

November 1, 2026

What is this startling new bondedness in love which I feel with those who are down in the same center of life? Can this amazing experience of togetherness in love be what people have called fellowship? Can this be the love which bound together the early church, and made their meals together into a sacrament of love?

-Thomas R. Kelly (Reality of the Spiritual World)

FELLOWSHIP: Engaging with other disciples in the common activities of worship, study, prayer, celebration, and service, which sustain our life together and enlarge our capacity to experience more of God.

Acts 2:42-47 (NIV, emphasis added) They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. All the believers were together and had everything in common. They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved.

The discipline for fellowship then is not about finding the “right group of people.” It is about committing to a group of people who are “devoted to the apostles’ teaching, to the fellowship, to the breaking of bread, and to prayer”. It is about creating an environment of men and women who watch out for one another “to provoke love and good works”. We must fight our temptation to avoid or neglect our spiritual communities, and instead become men and women who shape our spiritual communities with God’s love.

-Bailey T. Hurley (She Reads Truth)

Hebrews 10:19-25 (NIV) And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.
