MISSION FOCUS

David & Beth Larson serving international students in Ithaca

We are in our summer ministry schedule. During the spring semester at Cornell International Christian Fellowship (CICF) Beth led the beginners group study on Old Testament Pointing to Jesus and our student president Ohu and I led the other Bible study on the book of James. Attendance was low much of the semester but picked up near the end. Beth has started an Ithaca ISI Instagram account and we still need a better way to connect with new students in the fall. CICF will be meeting during the summer, hosted at various homes. The summer series will be on the “I am” statements of Jesus. We are looking for a more suitable meeting venue for CICF in the fall which would have space for a children’s program. Beth would like to start this in the fall and there is one international volunteer who is excited to be helping. Please pray Beth can fill up the summer CICF schedule with hosts and Bible study leaders, that God would give wisdom and grant favor for meeting more new students and that God would provide a suitable venue for CICF for the fall. We traveled to Hawaii and Japan in June and are praying for the reviving of ISI’s ministry in Hawaii as well as for more ISI staff in Japan. We had a New York City international alumni event for students who have stayed in the U.S. to work. Our main speaker shared “Seeing God’s Hand in Your Career and Life”. The program was well received and people stayed around quite a while after the program making connections and having some quality conversations. Praise God that the New York alumni event went well and pray for the continued impact of the evening on those who attended.
