Reflections on Sunday’s Sermon

The New City Catechism—Lord’s Day 42

How is the Word of God to be Read and Heard?

With diligence, preparation, and prayer; so that we may accept it with faith, store it in our hearts, and practice it in our lives. (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Scripture

Hebrews 2:10-13 (ESV)

¹⁰ For it was fitting that he, for whom and by whom all things exist, in bringing many sons to glory, should make the founder of their salvation perfect through suffering. ¹¹ For he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one source. That is why he is not ashamed to call them brothers, ¹² saying, “I will tell of your name to my brothers; in the midst of the congregation I will sing your praise.” ¹³ And again, “I will put my trust in him.” And again, “Behold, I and the children God has given me.”

Understanding and Applying

1. Theme: What is the overarching theme of the passage (consider the context: historical, audience, surrounding texts)?

2. Doctrine: What are some truths, promises, or works of God that are being revealed to us in the passage?

3. Jesus: How does the passage point to or exalt Christ—His person, His work, or the salvation that He has accomplished for His people?

4. Implications: As a saint, how do the truths, promises, works of God, or the exaltation of Christ revealed in the passage impact your daily life or your beliefs or your worship?

5. Encouragement: Was there anything that was particularly encouraging to you?

6. Prayer: To close, how might the passage shape your prayers?
